

Honey bees can recognize human faces.

They are essential for pollinating a large percentage of the crops we eat.

A single bee can visit 5,000 flowers in a day.